

MIKA IMMONEN

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Finland's Mika Immonen #1 in the World Two Years in a Row

THE ICEMAN COMETH In 1998 Billiards Digest asked if a talent new to the sport of pocket Billiards, Finland's Mika Immonen, would go on to become the sports next great player. Would he, could he be their next 'leading man'? In 2010 they may have finally gotten their answer: a resounding "YES!" Mr. Immonen has been on what is perhaps the greatest run in the history of the sport! Player of the Decade, Consecutive Player of the year honors (2008, 2009), back to back U.S. Open Champion (2008, 2009, one of only two players in it's 37 year history!), and currently the # 1 player in the world, are some of the titles and accolades accompanying such feats that this still rising superstar now bears.

Nearing the end of 2007, this 2001 Nine Ball Champion turned a corner in his career and continues to dominate his sport in the way that athletes like Tiger Woods, Roger Federer, Kobe Bryant and Derek Jeeter have in their respective sports. Taking 5 of 7 major titles culminating with his victory at the 2009 Ten Ball Championship, this pool playing powerhouse has amassed over 20 wins through the 2008-2010 seasons, putting the 'freeze' on just about everyone he has faced. This incredible run has been met with amazement and awe as well as the envy of anyone who knows or enjoys the game. It has also fueled the fires of discussion of those in the know as to whether or not Mika is, or may go on to be the greatest player the sport of Billiards has ever known.

We don't know exactly what it was that Billiards Digest saw in the young Mika way back in 1998, but we do now—the making of a legend that has us all watching to see what this unparalleled player can accomplish next! They asked then, Does The Iceman Cometh? No. THE ICEMAN HAS ARRIVED!!
